Cookie monsters want it because it looks like fun, but they won't get it since YOUR name's on this one!

Just be sure to hide it well and eat it before they do...
And they'll still be nice if you leave a crumb or two!

- ◆ Let dry overnight and then the fun begins!
- ◆ Use a pointed paint brush dipped in food coloring or use colorful edible paint markers to decorate and write names on the cookies.
- ◆ Add pizzazz with the decorations and ideas available at ThePartyWorks.com!

Make memories using these for seat markers at a kids party. Give each child the poem on a treat bag so they can hide their cookie!

Q. Why did the cookie go to the doctor? (See answer below.)

Need a small inexpensive gift for a chocoholic? And who isn't? Wrap this candy wrapper around a 2 1/4" wide candy bar. Overlap and glue the edges with a glue stick in the back. For a slightly smaller bar, trim bottom border. It doesn't get any simpler than that!

Chocolate solves everything!

Be sure to break chocolate into small pieces before eating to allow calories to escape.

Can't eat beef.....Mad cow disease.
 Can't eat pork.....Trichinosis.
 Can't eat chicken.....Asian bird flu.
 Can't eat eggs.....Cholesterol is taboo.
 Can't eat fish.....Mercury from the tides.
 Can't eat fruits or veggies.....Insecticides.
 Now what to eat without fear or threat?
 The only thing left is CHOCOLATE!

©2004 ShirleyT@CraftSayings.com

Eat a chocolate before each meal. It will take the edge off your appetite so you eat less.

Why Chocolate?

- ◆ It makes you look younger due to the preservatives.
- ◆ It is the best over the counter "pick me up" prescription.
- ◆ It is an essential nutrient.
- ◆ It satisfies ALL your cravings!

A chocolate in each hand provides a balanced diet.

Soap-on-a-Rope is a Great American Classic!

The best of kitchens can whip up anything from an egg omelet to soap... Just look in your kitchen to find the ingredients for this soap on a rope! This fun recipe came from Christina at KitchenCraftsnMore.net where you'll find not only great recipes but wonderful craft recipes too! Stop in to see what she's cooking up next and sign up for her fun-filled blog.

Fatherhood is pretending the present you love most is soap-on-a-rope.
 -- Bill Cosby

Ingredients

- 1/2 cup of oatmeal
- 1/2 cup of a soap bar (broken into small pieces)
- 1-2 Tablespoons of vegetable oil
- 1-2 Tablespoons of water
- Rope - a piece of soft rope or cord with ends tied together in a knot

A hotel-sized bar of soap is about right and also makes a great souvenir!

Oatmeal Soap-on-a-Rope

©2006 shirleyt@craftsayings.com

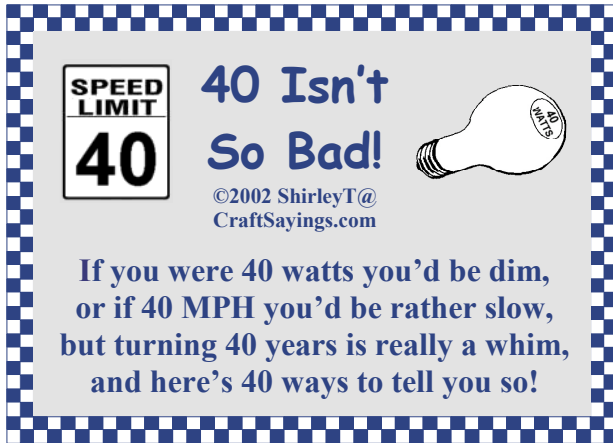

I was out of eggs so couldn't fix breakfast as I had hoped. Instead I whipped up a batch of this fun soap-on-a-rope!

The oatmeal in this soap will soften your face, arms & legs, but also blame the oatmeal if... you start craving ham and eggs!

- ◆ Place the soap and oatmeal in your blender. First blend and then using the pulse option, pulse until the mixture becomes fine.
- ◆ Put the soap and oatmeal mixture in a large deep bowl. Add both the oil and water. Mix well with your hands and then form a soap ball out of it.
- ◆ Using your index finger make a little depression in the soap ball. Push the knotted end of the cord into the depression. Bring the edges of the small depression around it and "bury" the cord into the ball of soap.
- ◆ Let the soap dry for about 24 hours. Then take a shower without fear of losing or slipping on your soap!
- ◆ Bonus: You get your blender sparkling clean too! LOL Just be sure to rinse it very well with hot water before using for food.

Keeping a soap dish clean is impossible. I'd ran out of hope until I found this little trick... I now use soap-on-a-rope!

40 Bits of Wisdom

Collection ©1972—Present ShirleyT@CraftSayings.com

Getting old is now chic. The rustic look is in.

Remember, the tea kettle still whistles at you.

You'll still get a little action when your prune juice starts working.

Your supply of brain cells is finally down to a manageable size.

Senility is a good thing. You're always meeting new friends.

You're now somewhere between the Young and the Restless and the Old and the Senseless.

Your secrets are safe with your friends because they can't remember them either.

You can now quit trying to hold your stomach in, no matter who walks into the room.

Your joints are now more accurate meteorologists than the National Weather Service.

Wrinkles are just antique smiles. You're very valuable... and happy!

At your age, you've seen it all, done it all and heard it all. Luckily you can't remember most of it.

Just because you're getting older, that doesn't mean you have to grow up.

One good thing about forgetting is that you can no longer worry about whatever it was you forgot.

Look on the bright side. At least wrinkles don't hurt. Unless you trip over them!

Middle age is all the rage!

Age isn't important unless you're cheese or wine.

You're aged to perfection!

At least it is a hill and not a mountain.

Age doesn't matter. It's ugly you have to watch out for.

Finally things will start clicking for you. . . your back, neck, knees, elbows. . .

Now you start thinking about the hereafter... you go somewhere to get something, and then wonder what am I here after!

Streaking Wrinkles

Two bored old ladies were sitting in their rockers in a nursing home discussing streaking. One dared the other and before she knew it, she had stripped down and taken off. As she turned the corner, she passed two elderly gentlemen, and then she was gone in a flash.

One old man turned to the other and asked, "Was that Mildred?" The other man said, "I think so, but what the heck was she wearing?" "I don't know," came the reply, "but it sure was wrinkled!"

Forty is not old. . . if you're a California Redwood.

Now it's early to bed, early to rise, 'til you get so old you have to do otherwise.

You don't need to avoid temptation. It now avoids you.

You don't have to worry about the police telling you to slow down now, just the doctor.

You're just 18 with 22 years experience.

You're entering the metallic years: Silver in your hair, gold in your teeth and lead in your bottom.

Don't worry about senility. When it hits you, you won't know it.

Age is a matter of mind over matter. If you don't mind, it doesn't matter.

Hang on! You've reached that age when everything either wears out, spreads out or falls out.

Old age and treachery easily beat out youth and vigor any day.

You're not old. You just became a classic.

Your belt may not buckle but your knees will.

Life is not a journey to arrive at the grave safely in a pretty and well preserved hide, but rather to skid in broadside, totally used up, thoroughly worn out and loudly proclaiming...

"WOW, WHATTA RIDE!!!!!!!!!!!"

CraftSayings.com

Your actions now creak louder than words.

Like a prune, you are not getting any better looking, but you are getting sweeter.

No more health foods. You now need all the preservatives you can get.

Life begins at 40, but so do fallen arches, rheumatism, faulty eyesight, and the tendency to tell a story to the same person, three or four times.

You're not old. You're vintage!

You look like 50, act like 20 and feel like 60, so you must be 40!

Hang in there, retirement is only 25 years away!

Yum! Orange Slice Pumpkins AND Pickled Worms!

Orange Pumpkin

This silly orange fellow has a big old sly grin, cuz he's really an orange disguised as a pumpkin!

©2000 ShirleyT@CraftSayings.com

Worms again?!?!

The orange slice pumpkin would make cute little favors for a kids school party. Just leave the face off for a fall pumpkin party. Pickled worms serve as a great dessert at any party. Make them ahead in baby food jars and refrigerate. They just may be more popular than the cake!

Pickling the worms kills the germs!

- Make orange Jell-O using speed set method. Fill clean baby food jars or any small jars half way and let soft set.

- Poke a few gummies down into the Jell-O.
- Make lime Jell-O the same way & add a layer of the lime Jell-O. If desired, push in more worms.
- Cover top of jar with a small square of muslin or homespun fabric. Tie on with raffia or ribbon.
- Glue a label to the jar with a small amount of white tacky glue or use a glue stick.
- Refrigerate.

- Sew your blocks together in the desired color pattern.
- Cut a piece of batting a little larger than the quilt. Cut a piece of fabric or a bed sheet for backing. Batting and backing should be a little larger than top to allow for shifting while sewing.
- Sandwich the batting between the quilt top and backing with right sides out. Loosely tack them together with needle and thread using large stitches.
- Scan, size and print your pictures onto plain paper. Trim pictures and place them on the quilt so that you can go back and resize pictures, use different ones or rearrange exactly as you wish. Number for later placement. When completely satisfied, print the pictures on the printer fabric sheets. Trim the pictures leaving about 1/4" around each picture. Trim the corners and iron the edges under.
- Sew each picture onto the blocks, sewing through all layers and sewing fairly close to the edge of the picture. It is also easier to angle them and it gives it a whimsy look. If desired glue down with fabric glue before sewing. Pins could leave marks on pictures.
- Trim the backing to fit the quilt top. Turn the edges of top and backing under and trim the batting just enough to fit between. Sew the batting and quilt top together.
- Gently rip out the tacks. The sewing around the pictures will hold the layers together. You can also "sew in the ditch" if desired.

Old quilters never die. They just go batty!

Memory Quilt

In this special quilt memories play a part in putting it together so it warms your heart.

Each little picture block has a story to tell, and with just a glimpse you'll recall it well.

So as the memories flow wrap it around snug, and close your eyes tight for a big heartfelt hug!

Don't forget the Laughing Magnets on Page 29. Laminate your favorite jokes onto sheet magnet.

Too Hot

"It's just too hot to wear clothes today," the husband said as he stepped out of the shower. "Honey, what do you think the neighbors would say if I mowed the lawn like this?"

"Probably that I married you for your money," she replied.

Swapping

He said, "Shall we try swapping positions tonight?"

She said, "That's a great idea. You stand by the ironing board while I sit in the lounge in front of the TV."

Forsaken?

The Mississippi River was flooding its banks and the waters were rising around Clem's house. The waters rose to the level of the front porch where Clem was standing. A man in a rowboat came by and called to Clem, "Hop in and I'll take you to high ground." Clem replied, "No, my God will save me!"

The river continued to rise to the second story windows and Clem, looking out, saw a powerboat. The man in the powerboat called to Clem, "Hop in and I'll take you to high ground." Clem replied, "No, my God will save me!"

The river had now risen to the roof of the house. Clem was sitting on the top ridge of the house, with the waters swirling around his feet. He saw a helicopter fly over and a man inside yelled over a bull horn, "Grab the rope and climb in and we'll take you to high ground." Clem replied, "No, my God will save me!"

The river continued to rise and finally it engulfed the house and Clem was drowned. The next thing he knew, Clem was standing before his God. In anger, he asked God, "I put my trust in you. Why have you forsaken me?"

To which his God replied, "What do you want from me? I sent you a rowboat, a powerboat and a helicopter!"

Attitude

There once was a woman who woke up one morning, looked in the mirror, and noticed she had only three hairs on her head. "Well," she said, "I think I'll braid my hair today." So she did and she had a wonderful day.

The next day she woke up and looked in the mirror and saw that she had only two hairs on her head. "H- m-m," she said, "I think I'll part my hair down the middle today." So she did and she had a grand day.

The next day she woke up, looked in the mirror and noticed that she had only one hair on her head. "Well," she said, "Today I'm going to wear my hair in a pony tail." So she did and she had a fun, fun day.

The next day she woke up, looked in the mirror and noticed that there wasn't a single hair on her head. "Yeah!" she exclaimed, "I don't have to fix my hair today!"

Attitude is everything!

- Take the chicken to Side B and leave him. The fox is left on Side A with the corn which he doesn't find tasty.
- Go back for the fox on Side A and bring him to Side B. Leave the fox on Side B but bring the chicken back with you to Side A.
- Leave the chicken on Side A and take the corn to Side B. The fox and corn are now on Side B.
- Go get the chicken and bring him to Side B. You did it!

CraftSayings.com

Solution!

Fox/Chicken/Corn Brainbuster

Here's your mission should you decide to take it. You must get a fox, a chicken and a sack of corn across the river from Side A to Side B in a small boat. The boat only has room for you and one other item. Leaving the fox with the chicken would obviously be disastrous. If the chicken is left with the corn, he'll surely eat it. How will you get everything safely across the river? You can make as many trips back and forth as you like.

The last two weeks can make you surly, so have a joke a day and pray you go early!

The last two weeks are always the longest! Cut the below jokes apart and put in a jar with the poem on the outside. Add mini wrapped chocolates. Give to a mom-to-be two weeks before her due date.

- Q. I'm almost two months pregnant, when will my baby move? A. With any luck, right after he finishes high school.
- Q. What is the most common pregnancy craving? A. For men to be the ones who get pregnant.
- Q. The more pregnant I get, the more often strangers smile at me. Why? A. Because you're fatter than they are.
- Q. My wife is five months pregnant and so moody that sometimes she's borderline irrational. A. So what's your question?
- Q. What's the difference between a nine-month pregnant woman and a model? A. Nothing, if the husband knows what's good for him.
- Q. Is there any reason I have to be in the delivery room while my wife is in labor? A. Not unless the word "alimony" means anything to you.
- Q. Does pregnancy cause hemorrhoids? A. Pregnancy causes anything you want to blame it for.
- Q. What are the terrible twos? A. Your breasts after baby stops nursing cold turkey.
- Q. Our baby was born last week. When will my wife begin to feel and act normal again? A. When the kids are in college.
- Q. What is the grasp reflex? A. The reaction of new fathers when they see a new mother's breasts.
- Q. What happens to disposable diapers after they're thrown away? A. They are stored in a silo in the Midwest, in the event of global chemical warfare.
- Q. What are night terrors? A. Frightening episodes in which the new mother dreams that she is pregnant again.
- Q. What is colic? A. A reminder for new parents to use birth control.
- Q. When is the best time to get an epidural? A. Right after you find out you're pregnant.

Beer Crust Pizza

This makes a great gift basket or just keep the ingredients on hand and whip it up for a quick dinner at home. It also makes a great pizza to serve at a party, even a kids party, since the beer cooks out. Guests will think you slaved in the kitchen and the uniqueness will make for interesting conversation.

Beer Crust Pizza

Thoroughly mix 2 cups white flour, 1 cup whole wheat flour and 1 Tbsp. baking powder. Place in a clean jar. In a basket, put the jar of mix, two 12 ounce beers and a jar of pizza sauce. Add toppings like a pepperoni stick, Parmesan cheese, an onion, a green pepper, mushrooms, a can of diced pineapple, etc. Add the poem and directions.

My idea of gourmet is pizza and beer!

One for You!

©2006 ShirleyT@CraftSayings.com

The beer goes in the pizza. It's for the crust... it's true, but lest you couldn't resist the extra one is for you!

CraftSayings.com

Mix dry ingredients with 12 ounces of beer. Spread in a 9 x 13 pan. Top with the sauce and toppings of your choice. Bake at 425 degrees for 25 to 30 minutes. Enjoy but don't look for a buzz. The beer cooks out of it!

Giving

The local United Way office realized that it had never received a donation from the town's most successful lawyer. The volunteer in charge of contributions called him to persuade him to contribute. "Our research shows that out of a yearly income of more than $600,000 you give not a penny to charity. Wouldn't you like to give back to the community in some way?"

CraftSayings.com

The lawyer mulled this over for a moment and replied, "First, did your research also show that my mother is dying after a long illness, and has medical bills that are several times her annual income?" Embarrassed, the United Way rep mumbled, "Um ... No."

"Second, that my brother, a disabled veteran, is blind and confined to a wheel chair?" The stricken United Way rep began to stammer out an apology, but was cut off.

"Third, that my sister's husband died in a traffic accident," the lawyer's voice rising in indignation, "leaving her penniless with three children?!" The humiliated United Way rep, completely beaten, said simply, "I had no idea ..."

On a roll, the lawyer cut him off once again, "And I don't give any money to them, so why should I give any to you!?"

Billing

A doctor and a lawyer were talking at a party. Their conversation was constantly interrupted by people describing their ailments and asking the doctor for free medical advice. After an hour of this, the exasperated doctor asked the lawyer, "What do you do to stop people from asking you for legal advice when you're out of the office?"

"I give it to them," replied the lawyer, "and then I send them a bill." The doctor was shocked, but agreed to give it a try. The next day, still feeling slightly guilty, the doctor prepared the bills. When he went to place them in his mailbox, he found a bill from the lawyer.

Home is where your honey is!

The best honeys are comfortable old bears!

Transform an inexpensive little bear into a wonderfully fragrant waxed ornament. Hang him on your tree or set him out for a cute decoration. Bear on right was a shaggy brown bear to begin with.

- Remove any tags or bows from a small jointed bear. If he does not already have a cord for hanging, sew a loop of ribbon or cord to his head. Pose the bear into a cute position.
- Place a large block of wax or light-colored used candles in a clean coffee can. Sit the can in a pot of boiling water until wax is melted.
- Add brown crayons and cinnamon to get the desired color and smell. Commercial candle scents and colorings may also be used.
- Hold by the hanging cord and dip the bear into the wax. Work quickly and use a fork to pick the fur. Set him on waxed paper until the wax is slightly hardened. If desired, dip bear and pick again.
- When completely dry, decorate as desired with a ribbon around his neck, straw hat, flowers, etc. Protect furniture from wax.

Yummy luscious chocolate kicks things up a notch. It's out of this world... "Great Balls of Ganache!"

There's no metaphysics on earth like chocolates!

Heat 1/2 cup heavy cream in a saucepan over medium heat until a skin begins to form on the surface. Pour the hot cream over 4 ounces of bittersweet or semi-sweet chocolate. Whisk until smooth. Let cool and then refrigerate until solid. Use a teaspoon to break off small pieces. Wet hands slightly and roll pieces into balls. Refrigerate or freeze until ready to use.

Roll in confectioners sugar for easy truffles. Put in the center of cupcake batter for scrumptious cupcakes. Plop in your hot chocolate or coffee for a real eye opener. Melt for a rich ice cream topping or dessert topping. Use for dipping fruits or veggies. Keep in the freezer to whip up a special dessert in a flash!

Chase away the frownies with a big pile of brownies!

Never again be caught empty-handed while needing a special dessert. It is so easy to keep the ingredients on hand for these quick but dressed up brownies. . . and almost just as easy to whip them up!

The Four Basic Food Groups:
Brownies, chocolate cake, fudge and diet coke!

Chocolate Cherry Brownies

- ◆ Preheat oven to 350 degrees.
- ◆ Combine a family size brownie mix with 1 cup (not one can) of cherry pie filling, 1/4 cup vegetable oil and an egg in a mixing bowl.
- ◆ Pour into a greased and floured 9 x 13 baking pan and bake per brownie box directions.
- ◆ Remove from oven and sprinkle with 1 cup semi-sweet chocolate chips.
- ◆ Spread across the top when melted.
- ◆ Cut with a sharp knife while warm.
- ◆ Top a few with the extra cherry filling.
