

Usage: You may use poems (see link for clipart usage) with the crafts in this book, with copyrights in place, for personal use and limited selling locally and at craft shows as set forth at www.craftsayings.com/sell. Poems may NOT be sold without crafts and no mass producing in any way.

Please view our sponsor page at www.craftsayings.com/sponsors.

Print "Saying Squares" below using a color laser printer. Decoupage onto 2 1/4" tiles, or use any printer and laminate onto sheet magnet.

I'm not here

CraftSayings.com

FORE I went golfing!

Our garden gate doth open wide

CraftSayings.com

to welcome all our friends inside!

What children hear at home

CraftSayings.com

soon everyone knows!

NO BRAINS

CraftSayings.com

NO HEADACHES!

This is a pen that you will almost never misplace or lose and you'll instantly spot a pen thief! The only problem is that kids love it too, so it gets lots of use! My DSIL Bridget made this for me and it is the only pen I can ever find. She is always coming up with something new and different. Please check out her site at BridgetsCraftCorner.com.

Line up flower stems or feather stems along the side of a stick pen. Wrap the pen and stems with florist tape, stretching slightly as you wrap. The tape will stick to itself. It is that simple! Then fill a fluted bowl vase with colored florist marbles for a home befitting your new pen. This is even easier than the pen!

If your children don't see their relatives often, or even if they do, teach them the lost art of writing real letters! Print out their own letterhead on the computer, give them a supply of stamps and envelopes and make them a special pen. Then encourage them to write their relatives and friends. The bonus is they'll probably get mail back which all kids love!

Grandmothers like letters. Even if they just consist of a squiggle and a dirty finger mark.

Confucius confuses me!

Confucius Fortunes

©2002 ShirleyT@CraftSayings.com

Your fortune may bring good luck or you may just find it amusing, because as Mrs. Confucius say Confucius can be very confusing!

Of course these “fortunes” are meant to be entertaining, but I feel that Confucius would agree that they still offer good advice. Bake up a batch of cookies using the recipe on the next page. Cut apart and put a fortune in each cookie.

Confucius Fortunes

Collection © 1972 - Present by ShirleyT@CraftSayings.com

- Confucius say: Man who eats crackers in bed get crummy sleep.
- Confucius say: Man who stand on toilet get high on pot.
- Confucius say: Man who run in front of car get tired.
- Confucius say: Man who run behind car get exhausted.
- Confucius say: Man who eat many prunes get good run for money.
- Confucius say: Man who tells one too many light bulb joke soon burn out.
- Confucius say: Man who sit on tack get point.
- Confucius say: Man who live in glass house should change in base-ment.
- Confucius say: Man who want pretty nurse got to be patient.
- Confucius say: Man who keep nose to grindstone end up with pointy nose.
- Confucius say: Man who speaks with forked tongue should not kiss balloon.
- Confucius say: Man who plow straight furrow fall in rut.

Confucius say: Man who jump through screen door likely to strain himself.

Confucius say: Man who put face in punchbowl get punch in nose.

Confucius say: Man who cook carrots and peas in same pot not eat from pot.

Confucius say: Man who guess woman's age may be smart, but not very bright.

Confucius say: Man who throws dirt loses ground.

Confucius say: Man with unchecked parachute likely to jump to con-clusion.

Confucius say: Wise man get clean in hot water.

Confucius say: Wise man make sure words touch wisdom tooth on way out of mouth.

Confucius say: Wise man never play leapfrog with a unicorn.

Confucius say: Wise man never eat yellow snow.

Confucius say: Naked man fears no pick pocket.

Confucius say: Bird in hand makes hard to blow nose.

Confucius say: Man with one chopstick go hungry.

Confucius say: Man who keep feet firmly on ground have trouble putting on pants.

Confucius say: Man who shoot off mouth bound to lose face.

Confucius say: Woman who sink in man's arms, soon have arms in man's sink.

Confucius say: Man who listen for train with head on track likely to get splitting headache.

Confucius say: Man who drive like h*## bound to get there.

Fortune knocks once, but misfortune has much more patience.

These fortune cookies begin great conversations at any gathering!

1 egg white
1/4 cup sugar
1 tbsp. water
2 tbsp. butter, melted
1/4 tsp. vanilla
1/3 cup flour

- Print Confucius fortunes or make your own and cut into strips.
- Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Grease cookie sheet.
- Mix egg white and sugar in a small bowl. Add water, butter and vanilla and mix. Stir in flour.
- Drop by teaspoonfuls onto a cookie sheet. Swirl the batter with the back of a spoon until spread very thin and almost transparent. (See picture below.)
- Bake 3 to 5 minutes until lightly browned on edges. Only bake a few cookies at a time to allow time for folding before they cool... about four at a time per person folding, less to begin with. Be careful of burns and work very fast!
- Put a fortune in the center of each cookie. Fold cookie in half and then fold again draping over the edge of a bowl to form the boomerang shape. Place each cookie in a muffin tin cup to cool.
- Makes 8 cookies. For a nice gift, box up cookies in a Chinese food take out box. Ask for one at the Chinese restaurant or print one from <http://www.CraftSayings.com/templates/chinesebox>.

Lots of Love

©2002 ShirleyT@CraftSayings.com

My cookie sheet may be quite worn and scratched, but it still tastily bakes up lots of love unmatched!

Sherry Hampton made this gorgeous doorstop. This method also can be used to make beautiful vases out of discarded bottles.

- Materials: Glass jug, regular paper bags, Royal Coat decoupage glue, clear polyurethane (varnish), small foam brushes, cork.
- Before beginning, print your favorite saying, joke, funny face, state slogan, etc. onto cardstock. If possible print it using a laser color printer so that the colors won't run while decoupage. If using an inkjet printer, allow it to dry for two days before decoupage to minimize running.
- Decoupage torn pieces of paper bag onto the jug starting at the top, slightly overlapping the pieces. Leave the handle alone for now since you will need something to hold onto. After a few rows, brush on a coat of Royal Coat. Keep doing this process all over the jug. Let the jug dry overnight. Then do the bottom the same way. Let dry.
- Decoupage the handle the same way with small thin torn strips and let dry.
- Cut out or tear around the edges of the printed cardstock and decoupage it onto the jug using light, long strokes to cover it. (If using an inkjet print, be extra careful and repeat after drying.)
- When completely dry, coat with two layers of clear polyurethane, letting each coat dry good and hard to protect the jug.
- Fill it with sand for a doorstop and seal with the cork. This one is filled with good old Georgia red clay!

Sherry (redrosherry) Hampton

##*##*##*##*##*##*##*

This brought back memories of a project my twins did over 15 years ago in Boy Scouts. They tore off pieces of masking tape and stuck it all over a glass juice bottle. Looks like they had longer base strips and top strips were about an inch long. Along the top, the pieces fold over and go inside a bit. They remember it and think they finished it by brushing on thinned glue. The vases have "weathered" over the years and I love them more every year!

Don't forget the laughing magnets on Page 29.

Waiting by the Door

Dave went on a business trip for a few days. When he returned, his wife reported that the dog really missed him. "She spent every night at the front door, awaiting your return," she said.

"What an example of true love," Dave replied. "I wonder if you'd be that concerned about me?"

"Honey," she answered, "if you were gone overnight, and I didn't know where you were, you can be sure I'd be waiting for you at the front door."

CraftSayings.com

Wrong Name

Two men were walking home after a Halloween party and decided to take a shortcut through the cemetery just for laughs. Right in the middle of the cemetery they were startled by a tap-tap-tapping noise coming from the misty shadows.

Trembling with fear, they found an old man with a hammer and chisel, chipping away at one of the headstones. "Holy cow, Mister," one of them said after catching his breath, "You scared us half to death -- we thought you were a ghost! What are you doing working here so late at night?"

"Those fools!" the old man grumbled. "They misspelled my name!"

CraftSayings.com

Hiring?

A woman walked up to the manager of a department store. "Are you hiring any help?" she asked.

"No," he said. "We already have all the staff we need."

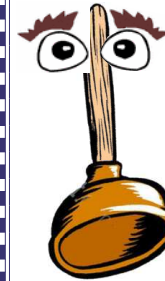

"Then would you mind getting someone to wait on me?" she asked.

CraftSayings.com

Every workplace bathroom needs this fellow!

Roll down the top of a tiny baby sock and place it on the handle of a plunger as a stocking cap. Glue large wiggly eyes and a pom nose to the handle under the cap. With a black marker, draw a mouth and write "And you think YOUR job stinks!" down the front. Glue a tiny mouse to the cap. If preferred, face can be painted on. Next time your job gets you down, just remember this little guy!

Stinky Job!

©2001 ShirleyT@CraftSayings.com

I know it's a thankless dirty job and sometimes rather pungent, but be thankful you've got me to dive right in and plunge it!

And you think your job stinks!

If things get any worse, I'll have to ask you to stop helping me.

A good friend is there even when you stink!

Some days are a total waste of makeup!

- Some days you're the pigeon, other days you're the statue.
- Some days you're the windshield, other days you're the bug.
- Some days you're the dog, other days you're the fire hydrant.
- Some days you're the cow head, other days you're the cow butt.
- Some days you're the early bird, other days you're the worm.
- Some days you're the cat, other days you're the hot tin roof.
- Some days you're the cow pie, other days you're the boot.
- Some days you step in it, other days you don't.

Can I trade this job for what's behind Door #2?

Men are like plungers.

They spend most of their lives in a hardware store or in the bathroom.

Fall is a good time to bring out the potpourri when we start closing up the house. Also make a few with felt bottoms and no potpourri in Christmas fabrics for the tree.

Mrs. Potpourri Mouse

©2006 ShirleyT@CraftSayings.com

Unlike her naughty cousins this little mouse is nice and neat. She won't ransack your house and will make it smell real sweet!

Pinch this end.

Ear Pattern

Body: Fill an empty walnut half shell with potpourri and glue fine tulle netting to the bottom.

Bonnet: Cut a 2.5" circle of fabric (shadow gray circle pattern) and glue lace around the outside edge. Gather the edges with a needle and thread. Insert a wad of fiberfill to puff it like a bonnet. Adjust the gathering and tie a knot. Glue the bonnet to the top of the walnut shell.

Ears: Cut two ears from gray felt, pinch in the center and glue to the bonnet as shown in the picture. Glue a small ribbon bow between ears.

Eyes: Glue on small black beads for eyes.

Optional whiskers: Glue on three strands of black thread or clear mono-filament (fishing line) in a crisscross fashion.

Nose: Glue a black pom or bead over whiskers as shown in left picture.

Potpouri Hints: When planning your next garden, add flowers and herbs that yield nice potpourri ingredients, like roses, lilac, lavender, mint and lemon balm. Some dry better upside down in hanging bunches in a dark dry room. For others dry the separated petals on screens. Also grow a few flowers for their color like violets, calendula and pansies. Drying these in silica gel will help maintain their colors. Save and dry orange and lemon peels. Pick up cinnamon sticks, vanilla beans, nutmeg and whole cloves on sale. Save pine cones, gumballs and small sticks for bulk. Mix up a batch of whatever you like. It is imperative to add approximately 1 tablespoon of fixative such as orrisroot, oak moss or sandalwood to each quart of dried petals to preserve the scent.

Little Pinecone

©2006 Emily Carlsten

To you I am just a pinecone and you are not alone.

But cover me with peanut butter and dip me in some seed.

Then you shall see how I can help A little birdie in need.

Kids will love helping put together and giving this quaint little gift. Gather pinecones on your next venture through the forest. Put them in a basket with a small jar of peanut butter and a small bag of birdseed. Add Emily's cute little poem to the basket.

Emily Carlsten

- Tie a string to the top of the pinecone, hiding it under the edges of the cone as much as possible and leaving the string long as a hanger.
- Mix peanut butter and bird seed in a bowl.
- Spread the mixture all over the pine cone, working it up under the "petals" of the cone. If desired, roll it in more bird seed to make it drier to the touch.
- Another version that kids like is to simply spread peanut butter all over each cone and then roll it in birdseed.
- The finishing touch: Dress up the cones by hanging a few together. Add a few beads to the strings and knot off at the top with a loop for hanging.
- Enjoy watching the birds flock to your creations.

Birdie Snacks

©1998 ShirleyT@CraftSayings.com

Here's a gift for you and all the lovely birds, for although they cannot speak the words, and they may find lots of worms on which to feed, their favorite still is peanut butter with bird seed!

Garden Bird House Sign:

Garden of Eatin'

All eyes are on you... making sure you check out
FamilyCorner.com!

This wonderfully oddball recipe came from Amanda Formaro at FamilyCorner.com. Don't miss her online magazine that has the cutest crafts and recipes you'll find on the net. Please check out all of the delightful projects on her site. Just don't miss the signup link for the magazine!

Strained Eyeballs

CraftSayings.com

- 6 hard boiled eggs
- 6 oz whipped cream cheese
- 7 oz green olives -- with pimientos
- Red food coloring

- Peel eggs and cut in half lengthwise. Remove and discard the yolks.
- Fill the holes with cream cheese to look like an eyeball.
- Press an olive into each cream cheese eyeball, pimiento facing up, for an eerie green iris and startling red pupil!
- For a final touch, dip the tip of a toothpick in red food coloring and draw broken blood vessels as shown.

From the files of Amanda Formaro at FamilyCorner.com

Strained Eyeballs

©2006 ShirleyT@
CraftSayings.com

These eyeballs are delicious and nutritious too...
if you can dare eat them
looking back at you!

The eyes have it... These are delicious!

Oh yuck,
but won't kids
love these!

Paranoid Principal

The new principal was checking over his school on the first day. Passing the stock room, he was startled to see the door wide open and teachers bustling in and out, carrying off books and supplies in preparation for the arrival of students the next day.

The school where he had been a Principal the previous year had used a check-out system only slightly less elaborate than that at Fort Knox. Cautiously, he asked the school's long time custodian, "Do you think it's wise to keep the stock room unlocked, letting the teachers take things without requisitions?"

The custodian looked at him gravely. "We trust them with the children, don't we?"

CraftSayings.com

Traveling Consonants

The quantity of consonants in the English language is constant. If omitted in one place, they turn up in another. When a Bostonian "pahks" his "cah," the lost r's migrate southwest, causing a Texan to "warsh" his car and invest in "erl wells."

CraftSayings.com

Caught in the Picture

I was taking a shower when my 2-year-old son came into the bathroom and wrapped himself in toilet paper. Although he made a mess, he looked adorable, so I ran for my camera and took a few shots. They came out so well that I had copies made and included one with each of our Christmas cards.

Days later, a relative called, laughing hysterically and suggesting I take a closer look at the picture. Puzzled, I stared at the photo and was shocked to discover that in addition to my son, I had captured my reflection in the mirror -- wearing nothing but a camera!

CraftSayings.com

Who you know determines where you go .... Know Jesus!

Kids need a stable background...
beginning with baby Jesus in the stable.

Humble Beginnings

©2006 ShirleyT@CraftSayings.com

“The inn is full,”
the innkeeper said.
“I do not have for you a nice bed.”
But he took pity as her tears did fall...
“I can give you only a place in the stall.”

So he took his lantern and led the way and soon a sweet baby was born in the hay.
It was not at all a bed to befit a grand king but angels gathered all above it to sing.

And the child grew up to do remarkable things and on mankind He bestowed great blessings.
So whenever life makes you want to grumble
remember Jesus laying in the hay so humble!

Jesus saves!
The rest of us better make backups.

Fill a large glass ball with excelsior, hay or anything that resembles hay. Arrange the “hay” with a pencil poked in the opening. Add the poem. Give as a gift, hang on your tree or in a window. May it remind that sometimes our problems aren’t as big as we think and Jesus is always there to help us through it.

Less Stress with Jesus!

©2006 ShirleyT@CraftSayings.com

Maybe our stress
will be a little less,
if we think of Jesus
and His love for us!

This little angel makes a great ornament or add the poem and give to a grieving friend.

- Head: Slide one end of an 18” thin silver wire thru a 24 mm pearl bead and center the bead on the wire.
- Halo: Slide small beads and/or rondelles onto the wire with head (pictured halo used 2 small pearls/1 rondelle, 2 small pearls, etc. totaling 5 rondelles and 10 pearls). Push end of wire back down thru head bead hole and make sure ends are even. Form bead circle into a halo.
- Body: Thread 5 18mm starburst beads, 5 14mm starburst beads, 5 10mm starburst beads, 5 4mm rondelles and 2 tiny crystal beads onto both strands of wire and push up against the head bead. Thread wire ends thru a teardrop crystal and twist around the top of it and up again around the next bead. Snip wire ends.
- Wings: Fold a 24” length of 24 mm artist wire in half and twist around neck. With needle nose pliers twist it into wing shapes on each side as shown.
- Finish: Glue an iridescent bow at neck. Tie a thread hanger to halo base.

Angel Tears

©2004 ShirleyT@CraftSayings.com

Angel tears are beautiful!
They fall from a loved one,
who only cries because the time
with us here on earth is done.

But there is this hidden message
in each lovely glistening tear...
“I am doing great in heaven and look at the beauty here!”

“Live your life to the fullest.
Do everything with real zest.
Give all your problems to God and let angels care for the rest.”

“Just remember that I love you and one day you’ll be here too, but until that time should come
I gleefully watch over you!”

Beaded Pattern ©2004
ShirleyT@CraftSayings.com

When the stars are twinkling, an angel awaits your prayer.

Less stress. More delicious fun!

Pat aka KraftyPattie said her family loves these potatoes and I bet all cooks will too! They are great for a fancy holiday dinner because they cut down on hustle bustle the day of your dinner. Make them the night before and just pop them in the oven the next day and wait for the compliments!

Grandpa's Party Potatoes

- 10-12 cups potatoes
- 2 tbsp margarine
- 2 tbsp. milk
- 1/4 tsp. pepper
- 3/4 tsp. salt
- 8 oz. cream cheese
- 8 oz. French onion dip mix
- 1/4 to 1/2 cup Ranch dressing
- paprika

- Cook and mash potatoes.
- Add margarine, milk, pepper and salt. Mix until smooth.
- Add cream cheese and French onion dip mix. Mix well.
- Add Ranch dressing. Mix well and spread into a 9 x 13 baking dish.
- Sprinkle with paprika.
- Cover and chill overnight in refrigerator.
- Remove for 30 minutes. Bake uncovered at 350 degrees for 50 to 60 minutes. Bring on the party!

CraftSayings.com

Party Potatoes

©2006 ShirleyT@CraftSayings.com

Tis nothing like a party and these party potatoes to kick things up a notch and chase away all woes!

Politically Correct Potatoes

To the politician who once spelled potato incorrectly, here is the politically correct way to spell potato. Since GH can stand for P as in Hiccough, OUGH can stand for O as in Dough, PHTH can stand for T as in Phthisis, EIGH can stand for A as in Neighbor, TTE can stand for T as in Gazette and EAU can stand for O as in Plateau, the correct spelling of POTATO is.... drum roll....

"GHOUGHPTHTEIGHTTEEAU"

Bridal Shower Gift: Tired of giving the same old shower gifts. Here is something different that is sure to be loved. Pack ingredients for a special dinner in a picnic basket. Example: Spaghetti noodles, a jar of sauce, parmesan cheese, a loaf of Italian bread, a bottle of wine, etc. Add Karen's sentimental poem.

Cooking up a Good Marriage

©2006 KarenTee@CraftSayings.com

Marriage is like cooking
And to be a success,
There is a lot to go in it.
You must give it your best.

If you leave something out
You may be likely to fall.
It's one of those things where
You must give it your all.

There will be times
You scrimp and scrape,
And at other times
Life is a piece of cake.

There will be times
When you will disagree.
Good times, bad times,
Just wait and see.

Patience, humor and acceptance
Are all part of the recipe.
Put all your good traits forth
And there is no guarantee.

But with the man you love
There is no greater joy in life,
Than looking in his eyes
And becoming man and wife.

A Few Thoughts on Marriage

All marriages are happy. It's the living together afterward that causes all the trouble.

Don't smother each other. Only mushrooms grow well in shade.

Getting married is easy. Staying married is more difficult. Staying happily married forever ranks up there with the fine arts.

Give and take, a happy marriage make.

Keep your eyes wide open before marriage and half shut afterwards.

Love is temporary insanity, curable by marriage.

Love, honor and negotiate.

Knock Knock.
Who's there?
 Moo.
Moo who?
 Make up your mind.
 Are you a cow or an owl?!!

Knock Knock.
Who's there?
 Dwayne.
Dwayne who?
 Dwayne the pool,
 I'm dwooning!

Knock Knock!
Who's there?
 Wanda.
Wanda who?
 Wanda come out and play?

Knock Knock.
Who's there?
 Lettuce.
Lettuce who?
 Lettuce in and we'll tell you!

Knock Knock!
Who's there?
 Lionel.
Lionel who?
 Lionel get you in trouble.
 Better tell the truth!

Knock Knock.
Who's there?
Theodore and Doris
Theodore and Doris who?
 Theodore is stuck and the front Doris locked and we can't get in!

Knock Knock.
Who's there?
 Police.
Police who?
 Police let me in.
 It's cold out here!

Knock Knock!
Who's there?
 Voodoo.
Voodoo who?
 Voodoo you think you are?
 The doorman?

Knock Knock.
Who's there?
 Dishes.
Dishes who?
 Dishes the police, come out with your hands up!

Knock Knock.
Who's there?
 Aardvark.
Aardvark who?
 Aardvark a million miles
 for you!

Knock Knock.
Who's there?
 Banana.
Banana who?
 Nobody. Banana split!

Knock Knock!
Who's there?
 Orange.
Orange who?
 Orange you glad
 I'm done?

Cook up some fun!

Diane's son made these in third grade class and I made them with my DGD. We made rainbow flowers too and Trini says they're.....

Super Scrumdillitelyumplischous!

Cooking up a storm with a rainbow at the end!

Always keep a smile on your face,
 a rainbow in your heart and the cookie jar full!

Giant Rainbow Cookies

- 1 cup sugar
- 1 cup butter, softened
- 1 egg
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 2 cups flour
- 6 colors of food coloring

Mix sugar, butter, egg and vanilla. Add flour; mix well. Divide dough into six bowls. Add a different food coloring to each bowl. Roll each of six balls into a snake shape onto a floured surface. Arch the snake and press onto cookie sheet. Add another snake shape until the rainbow is formed. Bake at 350 for 10-15 minutes. When cool let each child taste a piece of the rainbow.

CraftSayings.com

Rainbow Goodies

©2006 ShirleyT@CraftSayings.com

What could be better than finding goodies at the rainbow's end?
 Giggling and making memories and sharing it with a friend!

For perfectionists, let ROY G. BIV help you get your rainbow perfect.
 Red, Orange, Yellow, Green, Blue, Indigo and Violet!

Diane's tot name song tape is fun too at CraftSayings.com/tunesfortots

Some Sweet Smelling Advice...

Instructions: Failure to follow could result in a fire hazard. Keep away from children & pets. Never burn unattended. Votives: Always burn votive in a proper fitting votive holder. Burn on a protected heat resistant surface. Always maintain 1/4" wick length. Flame size should never be more than 1/2" for any long length of time. Liquid pool should be 1/2". If the candle is burning too hot, blow out & allow to cool. Trim wick & relight. Remove wick trimmings, matches or any debris from candle. Glass may become hot so avoid touching. Drafts, ceiling fans, air conditioning may alter the speed of the burn and should be avoided. Candles should not be burned for more than 3 to 4 hrs. Candles should not be used with shades. Melts: Use only in a well ventilated, candle lit or UL approved, electric wax potpourri pot, with min. 2 1/2" top opening; do not cover or add water. If using a tea lite potpourri burner, warm with unscented tea lights. Do not let flame contact underside of pot. Never warm the melts on a stove. Warm a minimum of one melt.

Thank you!

My Three Scents
©2006 ShirleyT@CraftSayings.com

I'd like to give you my three scents.
I think you'll find it better than two,
since no advice I could ever give would smell as good as these do!

Package three scented melts/tarts individually in Ziploc bags to avoid cross scenting. Spread out so that all can be seen and staple on top. votives can also be used. Another cute presentation is to "shrink wrap" individually two melts with stretchable plastic wrap. Stack the two melts on top of a votive, set them in the center of a piece of tulle, pull the tulle up around the votive/melts and tie it off with a pretty ribbon. Tag can be threaded onto the ribbon.

Check out www.MiaSoy.com for the best smelling melts.
That's my three scents worth of advice!

There isn't enough darkness in all the world to snuff out the light of one little candle. — Hindu Prince Gautama Siddharta, the founder of Buddhism, 563-483 B.C.

Please submit your poems, projects and sayings involving candles.
You could win a gift card!

A bunch of little sayings
just for the pun of it!

Intelligence without ambition is like a bird without wings.

Better to have laugh lines
than worry warts!

Hairy Kiwi: Death by fruit

Optimism: Waiting for a ship to come in when you haven't sent one out.

A bird in the hand
is safer than one overhead.

Some people are like wheelbarrows... only useful when pushed
and very easily upset.

The best vitamin for a Christian is B1.

Don't byte off more than you can view.

The laughter of children is an international language.

Mom's
Kitchen
Love served
24 hours

Sayings from Collection of ShirleyT@CraftSayings.com ©1972—Present

American by birth.
Fisherman by choice!

A family is a gift forever!

The plush new teddies
in the store are strangers.
The tattered bear in the chest is a friend forever.

Think snow!

Life is more fun
when we don't keep score.

If I were normal,
I wouldn't be me!

It's snowtime!

If you can't convince them,
confuse them!

I gave birth to royalty...
The Prince of Wales!

What little ears shouldn't hear...
Big mouths shouldn't say!

Local Area Network in Australia:
The LAN down under.

A bicycle can't stand on its own because it is two-tired.

Church Sign
Under same management
for over 2000 years!

Loose lips.
Broad hips!

Acupuncture is a jab well done.

In God we trust.
All others
we virus scan.